Julia Coolidge, Bride To-day in King's Chapel

By ELIZABETH ELLIOTT.

Weddings are again this week, as they were last, the all-important function of the summer calendar, and that today of pretty bridesmaid Julia Coolidge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Coolidge, Jr., of Longwood and Henry House, Cambridge, graduate of Wellesley College, who was not less notable than the bride.

The ceremony took place at King's Chapel, and was followed by a large reception at the beautiful Coolidge house. The Rev. Howard N. Brown, D.D., officiated. The bride, who was a handsome girl of white satin and a veil of rare old lace, chose Miss Katherine Putnam of Boston street, a daughter of the Rev. Mr. Putnam, as bridesmaid, and Miss Margaret Brewster and Miss Anna Gardner as bridesmaids.

John Richards, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were William Amory Gardner of Boston and Gordon J. Randolph Coolidge, Jr. of Longwood and Henry House of Boston. John Howe Hall, George W. Martin, Dr. Herman Aldrich, the latter of New York, John W. Brown of Springfield, Frederick Barton of Concord, and Arthur Brewster of Andover.

Miss Coolidge is prominently identified with the smart Yacht club circle of this city, where she was out to sea on the wedding. She was a debutante of only a couple of seasons ago, and is one of the stars of that year's circle to do big things.

This was also the wedding day of Miss Julia Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parker, and Paul Roland Dickson, who took place in Trinity Church, Newport.

The bride was placed in white satin, worn in white satin, and was attended by her sister, Miss Katherine Putnam, who wore white satin.

Boston was well represented in the bridal party, as Miss Lawrence, son of Miss William Lawrence, son of Miss George Putnam of Beacon street and Miss M. J. Lawrence, son of Miss George Putnam of Beacon street.

The other ushers were Francis Hild of Philadelphia and Thomas Hild of New York, and the bridesmaids were Miss Anna Gardner of Andover, Miss Katherine Putnam of Boston, and Miss Margaret Brewster of Andover.

Miss Coolidge was introduced to society in 1898, and was the first of the following season. She is a beautiful girl, and is very popular. The young couple will retire to Europe, where they will remain for some time, and may possibly reside permanently.

Mr. Coolidge gave the ceremony on Saturday night at the Mounting-ridge station in New York.

North Shore yachts form a small part of the fleet of the Eastern Yacht Club. It is the only club of the kind in the world, and is the only club of the kind in the world.

Harold A. Vanderbilt is to sail the fastest yacht, while the Duke of Devonshire has entered his ship, the Duke of Devonshire.

After the Railroads, What?

By MILO HASTINGS.

And so another of the "radical and revolutionary doctrines" for which the American has fought with earnest sincerity for many years is finally accepted by a majority of the American people as just and reasonable and right. The stone rejected by the politicians and the plutocrats becomes a corner-stone in the foundation for future progress.
